ABOUT ANAND

ANAND Group is a billion dollar conglomerate with presence across India. The Group was established in 1961. It operates two business verticals: Automotive, where it is the Industry Leader in the Indian market; and Hospitality, through the globally acclaimed chain of Luxury Hotels - SUJÁN.

It strongly believes in the 'Power of Partnerships' which is further driven by the 'Power of People'. We are therefore constantly pushing boundaries and exploring new horizons by partnering Companies, People and the Society at every step of the way. ANAND is known for its long running and successful partnerships with leading global front-runners, each one being a respected leader in its field of operation.

Remaining ethical and transparent in all dealings, ANAND has built a legacy to be proud of. The story of ANAND, with several successful partnerships built over six decades, stands testimony to The ANAND Way.

ANAND provides the widest range of solutions to the Indian Automotive Industry and is among the country's leading manufacturers and suppliers of Automotive Systems and Components. Our customers include every major vehicle and engine manufacturer in India. We have a solid presence in the Indian Aftermarket as well, with some of its flagship brands being market leaders. The Group today, supplies to every major vehicle and engine manufacturer in the country.

At SUJÁN, we cherish creativity and draw inspiration from a family ethic that endures to this day; a tradition that values the power of partnership and celebrates the joy of living. The globally acclaimed SUJÁN properties are environment friendly, private, and exclusive hotels that aim to create new benchmarks in luxury and unsurpassable service.

CREATING LASTING VALUE

ANAND offers world-class products and experiences in Automotive and Hospitality segments. With dedicated pursuit for excellence and collaboration with leading global front-runners ANAND brings the global best in both the segments. Integrating diverse units and operations with an assorted work force partners has made ANAND the large conglomerate that it is today.

AUTOMOTIVE

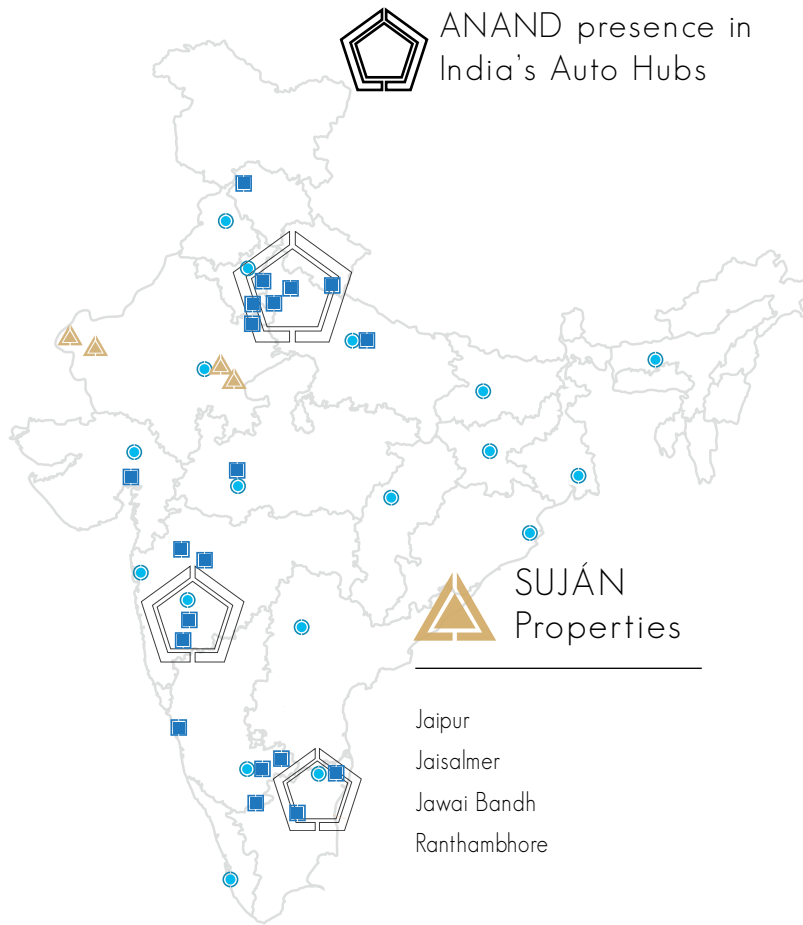

A leading global conglomerate, ANAND offers a wide range of Automotive Systems and Components. ANAND started its journey as a shock absorber manufacturer; six decades hence, nearly every vehicle on Indian roads and several globally, carry within them a part of ANAND. While India is our hub of business activity, international OEM customers and a significant aftermarket presence worldwide, make us a truly global automotive player.

HOSPITALITY

At SUJÁN, we cherish creativity and draw inspiration from a family ethic that endures to this day. This is a tradition that values the power of partnership and celebrates the joys of living. We have a passion to share our unique art de vivre and are part of an unbroken link which commits to conserve the cultures and where we are rooted. We create experiences crafted to appeal to the connoisseur, the adventurous and those looking for something different, while enjoying spoiling luxury.
