

MS. MATANGI GOWRISHANKAR

Non-Executive Independent Director

Ms. Matangi Gowrishankar brings more than three decades of experience as a business, Human Resources and Change Management specialist. Passionate about Leadership and Organization Development she has a track record in organization transformation and talent management both in India and overseas.

She has worked with several large multinational organizations like Standard Chartered Bank, Reebok, GE, Cummins Inc and most recently, with the British Oil Major BP plc where her last assignment was Global Head of Capability Development and Director of the Leadership Academy. She has extensive, diverse experience having lived and worked in the UK and Singapore with a broad geographical remit across several countries.

Matangi has a BA in Sociology and a Post Graduate qualification in Human Resources from XLRI, a premier educational institution in India. She is a certified coach from the Neuroleadership Institute Australia and a member of the ICF.

Matangi has her own Executive Coaching & Organization Development practice. She also holds several Non - Executive Independent Directorships with Listed and Public companies in India across diverse industries.