Gabriel India, Chang Yun India win big at ACMA Awards

Two companies of ANAND Group, Gabriel India Ltd. and Chang Yun India Pvt. Ltd. were awarded the Gold Trophy in the Excellence in HR (Special) category and Bronze Trophy in the Excellence in Quality & Productivity (Large) category respectively at the 55th Annual Session & National Conference held on September 3, 2015 in New Delhi. The event was conducted by the Automotive Component Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA) and the Chief Guest, Anant Gangaram Geete, Union Cabinet Minister for Heavy Industries and Public Sector Enterprises graced the ceremony with his presence.

Manoj Kolhatkar, MD Gabriel India said, "Winning this award is a great achievement & this would take us to higher levels of recognition, encouraging us to continue to thrive for HR excellence for years to come." On the hand, Rajeev Gera, COO, Chang Yun India said, "We are honored to be recognized in this forum. Our commitment towards continuous improvement of quality & productivity is vital behind the win."

ACMA, led by Ramesh Suri, President – ACMA, represents the interest of the Indian Auto Components Industry. The Award for Excellence in HR recognizes companies in the industry for the best HR Practices, whereas the Award for Excellence in Quality & Productivity recognizes outstanding achievements by member companies in the area of Quality and Productivity. This year the jury panel was chaired by Vinod K. Dasari, MD, Ashok Leyland Ltd. and included several eminent leaders like Hemant Sikka, Executive Vice President, Chief Purchase Officer – Auto & farm Sectors, Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd., K.N Radhakrishnan, President & CEO, TVS Motor Company Ltd. among other members.

Gabriel India, an ANAND company, continuously strives to be the preferred place to work by investing in training & leadership development programmes for its employees. Beating a tough competition from 70 companies in different categories, Gabriel India emerged as the winner for its commitment to improve its HR strategies and follow excellent people practices.
