

Management Bulletin

20th June 2017

Mr. Naresh Moily
Chief Operating Officer
Spicer India Private Limited

Mr. Naresh Moily has been appointed as the Chief Operating Officer of Spicer India Private Limited (SIPL), effective 1st July 2017. He will take over the responsibility from Mr. Ramneek Jain, who has decided to pursue his career outside the ANAND Group. Naresh has been associated with SIPL since 1994 and he is currently serving as Head-Human Resource. As the COO, Naresh will be responsible for plant operations, central quality, operational excellence and human resources. He will continue to report to Mr. Mahendra Goyal, President and Managing Director, SIPL. Naresh will be based out of the SIPL head office in Chakan, Pune. He began his career at SIPL in 1994 as an Operating Engineer. He thereafter handled increasing responsibilities, as Production Manager - Lucknow plant, Head of Technical Service Group (TSG) - Satara plant, Plant Head - Satara plant and Plant Head - Jodhalli plant. Naresh played a key role in setting up the new facility in Jodhalli and he was instrumental in achieving the desired financial results. In 2014, he took over the role of HR Head at SIPL. Naresh graduated with a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He completed the Visionary Leaders for Manufacturing (VLFM) Programme in 2008, and the ANAND Leadership Development Programme (ALDP) in 2009. In 2017, he earned the Postgraduate Certificate in Human Resource Management (PGCHRM) from Xavier School of Management (XLRI), Jamshedpur. Currently he is undergoing the Advanced Management & Leadership Programme at the University of Oxford, UK.Korea.